 agayne at the sea of Tiberias. And he manifested thus: ² There were together Simon Peter and Thomas who is called Didymus, and Nathanael which was of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples.

³ Simon Peter saith to them, I goe to fish.
 They say to him, Vve also come wvith thee. And they went furth and got vp into the boate: and that night they tooke nothing. ⁴ But vvhcn morning vvas now come, Iesus stode on the shore: yet the disciples knew not that it vvas Iesus.

⁵ Iesus therfore saith to them, Children, have you any meate? They answered him, No. ⁶ He saith to them, Cast the nette on the right side of the boate: and you shal fynde. They therfore did cast it: and nowv they were not able to dravv it for the multitude of fishes. ⁷ That disciple therfore vvhom Iesus loved, saith to Peter, It is our Lord. Simon Peter vvhcn he had heard that it is our Lord: girded his coate vnto him (for he vvas naked) and cast him self into the sea. ⁸ But the other disciples came in the boate (for they were not farre from the land, but as it were two hundred cabits) dravving the nette of fishes. ⁹ Therfore after they came dovvn to land, they savv hote coles lying, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

21. AFTER these things Iesus shewed himselfe agayne to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and on this wise shewed he himselfe. ² There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. ³ Simon Peter saith vnto them, I goe a fishing. They say vnto him, We also goe with thee. They went fourth and entred into a ship immediatly, and that night they caught nothing. ⁴ But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Iesus. ⁵ Then Iesus saith vnto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. ⁶ And hee said vnto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and yee shall fynd. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it, for the multitude of fishes.
⁷ Therefore that disciple whom Iesus loved, saith vnto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fishers coat vnto him, (for he was naked) and did cast himselfe into the sea. ⁸ And the other disciples came in a litle ship (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundred cubites) drugging the net with fishes.

 they saw a fire of coales there, and fish

1. THE former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began both to doe and teach. ² Untill the day in which he was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost had given commandements vnto the Apostles, whom he had choosen. ³ To whom also hee shewed himselfe aliue after his passion, by many infallible proofes, being scene of them fortie dayes, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kyngdome of God: ⁴ And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Hierusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye haue heard of me. ⁵ For Iohn truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, not many dayes hence. ⁶ When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore againe the kyngdome to Israel? ⁷ And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power. ⁸ But ye shall receiue power after that the holy Ghost is come vpon you, and ye shall be witnesses vnto me, both in Hierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost part of the earth. ⁹ And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was ⁴¹ And they made a calfe in those dayes, and offered sacrifices vnto the idole: and reioyced in the workes of their owne handes. ⁴² Then God turned him self away, and gaue them vp into a reprobate sense, that they should worship the hoste of the akye, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, Then house of Israel, gaue ye to me killing of beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty yeres in the wilderness?

⁴³ And ye toke vp the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your god Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them: therefore I wil remove you beyonde Babylon. ⁴⁴ Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed them, speaking vnto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seene. ⁴⁵ Which tabernacle also, our fathers receaued and brought in with Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God draue out before the face of our Fathers, vnto the dayes of David:

Who hath appointed the prince and Captaine? him God sent prince and redeemer, with the hand of the Angel that appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶ He brought them forth doing wonders and signes in the land of Egypt, and in the redde sea, and in the desert fourtie yeres. ³⁷ This is that Moses vvhich said to the children of Israel, A prophet will God raise vp to you of your owne brethren as my self: him you shal heare. ³⁸ This is he that was in the assemblie in the wilderness, with the Angel that spake to him in Mount Sina, and with our fathers: vvhich receiued the vvordes of life to geue vnto vs. ³⁹ To vvhom our fathers vvould not be obedient: but they repelled him, and in their hartes turned away into Egypt. ⁴⁰ saying to Aaron: Make vs goddes that may goe before vs: for this Moses that brought vs out of the land of Egypt, we knowe not vvhich is befallen to him. ⁴¹ And they made a calfe in those daies, and offered sacrifice to the Idole, and reioyced in the vvorkes of their owne handes. ⁴² And God turned, and deliuered them vp to serue the hoste of heauen, as it is vvritten in the booke of the Prophets: Did you offer victims and hostes vnto me fourtie yeres in the desert, O house of Israel?

⁴³ And you tooke vnto you the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your God Remphan, figures vvhich you made, to adore them. And I will translate you beyond Babylon.

⁴⁴ The tabernacle of testimonie was among our fathers in the desert, as God ordained speaking to Moses, that he should make it according to the forme vvhich he had seene. ⁴⁵ Vvhich our fathers with Iesus receiuing, brought it in also into the possession of the Gentiles, vvhich God expelled from the face of our fathers, made thee a ruler and a Judge? the same did God send to bee a ruler and a delayerer, by the hands of the Angel which appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶ He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signes in the land of Egypt, and in the red Sea, and in the wilderness forty yeres.

³⁷ This is that Moses which said vnto the children of Israel, A Prophet shal the Lord your God raise vp vnto you of your brethren, like vnto mee: him shal ye heare. ³⁸ This is he that was in the Church in the wilderness with the Angel, which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who receiued the liuely oracles, to geue vnto vs. ³⁹ To vvhom our fathers vvould not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hartes turned backe agayne into Egypt. ⁴⁰ Saying vnto Aaron, Make vs gods to goe before vs. For as for this Moses, which brought vs out of the land of Egypt, we wote not what is become of him. ⁴¹ And they made a calfe in those dayes, and offered sacrifice vnto the idole, and reioyced in the workes of their owne handes. ⁴² Then God turned, and gaue them vp to worship the hostes of heauen, as it is vvritten in the booke of the Prophets, O ye house of Israel, haue ye offered to me shaine beasts, and sacrifices, by the space of forty yeres in the wilderness? ⁴³ Yea, ye tooke vp the Tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of your God Remphan, figures which ye made, to worship them: and I will carie you away beyond Babylon. ⁴⁴ Our fathers had the Tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as hee had appointed, speaking vnto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seene. ⁴⁵ Which also our fathers that came after, brought in with Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, vvhom God draue out before the face of our fathers, vnto the dayes of David,

And alwaies praying to God, he saw in a vision manifestly, about the ninth houre of the day, an Angel of God comming in vnto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. But he beholding him, taken with feare, said, Who art thou Lord? And he said to him, Thy prayers and thy almes-deedes are ascended into remembrance in the sight of God. And now send men vnto Ioppé, and call hither one Simon that is surnamed Peter. He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side, he wil tel thee what thou must doe. And when the Angel was departed that spake to him, he called two of his household, and a souldier that feared our Lord, of them that were vnder him. To whom when he had told all, he sent them vnto Ioppé.

And the next day whyles they were going on their journey, and drawing nigh to the citie, Peter went vp into the higher partes, to pray about the sixth houre. And being hungry, he was desirous to take somewhat. And as they were preparing, there fel vpon him an excoase of minde: and he saw the heauen opened, and a certayne vessel descending, as it were a great linnen shete with foure corners let downe from heauen to the earth, where-in were all foure-footed beastes, and that creepe on the earth, and foules of the aire.

And there came a voyce to him, Arise Peter: kill, and cate. But Peter said, God forbid, Lord: for I did neuer cate any common or vncleane thing. And a voyce came to him againe the second time, That which God hath purified, doe not thou cal common. And this was done thrise, and forthwith the vessel was taken vp againe into heauen. second Psalme, Thou art my Sonne, this day begat I thee. ³⁴ As concerning that he raised him vp from death, now no more to returne to graue, he sayd on this wise: The holy mercies made to Dauid, I will geue faithfully to you. ³⁵ Wherefore he sayth also in another place, Thou shalt not suffice thyne holy one to see corruption. ³⁶ Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his tyme by the counsel of God, he slept, and was layd with his fathers, and sawe corruption. ³⁷ But he whom God raysed agayne, sawe no corruption.

³⁸ Be it knowen vnto you therefore men and brethren, that through this man, is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes, and that from all synnes, from which ye could not be iustified by the Lawe of Moyses. ³⁹ By him every one that beleueth is iustified. ⁴⁰ Beware therefore, lest that fall on you, which is spoken of, in the Prophetes, ⁴¹ Beholde ye despisers, and wonder, and vanishe away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which ye shal not beleue, yf a man would declare it you. ⁴² When they were come out of the Synagoge of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preache these wordes to them the next Sabbath daye. ⁴³ When the Church was broken vp, many of the Iewes, and vertuous conuerter folowed Paul and Barnabas: which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God. ⁴⁴ And the next Sabbath day, came almost the whole cite together, to heare the worde of God. ⁴⁵ But when the Iewes sawe the people, they were ful of indignation, and spake agaynst those thinges which were spoken of Paul, contraryng them, and raylyng on them.

My sonne art thou, this day haue I begotten thee. ³⁴ And that he raised him vp from the dead, not to returne now any more into corruption, thus he said, That I will giue you the holy things of Dauid faithfully. ³⁵ And therefore in an other place also he saith, Thou shalt not giue thy holy one to see corruption. ³⁶ For Dauid in his generation when he had serued, according to the will of God slept: and he was laid to his fathers and saw corruption. ³⁷ But he whom God hath raised vp, saw no corruption.

³⁸ Be it knowen therefore to you, men brethren, that through him, forgiveness of sinnes is preached to you, from all the things from the which you could not be iustified by the law of Moyses. ³⁹ In him every one that beleueth is iustified. ⁴⁰ Take heede therefore lest that come vpon you which is spoken in the prophetes, ⁴¹ See ye contempters, and wonder, and perishe: because I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which you will not beleue, if any man shal tel it you.

⁴² And they going forth, they desired them that the Sabbath following they would speake vnto them these wordes. ⁴³ And when the synagoge was dimissed, many of the Iewes, and of the strangers seruing God, folowed Paul and Barnabas: who speaking exhorted them to continue in the grace of God. ⁴⁴ But the next Sabbath the whole cite almost assembled to heare the word of God.

⁴⁵ And the Iewes seeing the multitudes, were replenished with enuy, and contradicted those things which were said of Paul, blaspheming. ⁴⁶ Then Paul and Barnabas constantly said, To you it becometh vs first to speake the word of God: but because you repell it, and iudge your selues vnworthy of eternal life: behold

³⁰ They therefore being dismissed vvent dovvne to Antioche: and gathering the multitude, deliuered the epistle. ³¹ Vvhich vvhenn they had read, they reioyced vpon the consolation: ³² but Iudas and Silas, them selues also being propheta, vvvith many vvordes comforted the brethren, and confirmed them. ³³ And hauing spent some time there, they were vvvith peace dismissed of the brethren vnto them that had sent them. ³⁴ But it seemed good vnto Silas to remaine there: and Iudas departed alone: ³⁵ And Paul and Barnabas taried at Antioche, teaching and euangelizing vvvith many others the vvord of our Lord.

¹⁶ While Paul waited for them at Athens, his sprite was moved in him, to see the cite subiect to worship idoles. ¹⁷ Therefore he disputed in the Synagoge with the Iewes, and with them that feared God, and in the market dayly with whome so ever he met. ¹⁸ Certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoickes, disputed with him, and some sayd, What will this babler say? ¹³ Then certayne of the vagabond Iewes, exorcistes, tooke vpon them to call ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adiuere you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth. ¹⁴ And there were seuen sounes of one Sceua a Iewe, and chiefe of the Priestis, which did so. ¹⁵ And the euill spirit answered, and saide, Iesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye? ¹⁶ And the man in whom the euill spirit was, leapt on them, and overcame them, and preuayled against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷ And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Greekes also dwelling at Ephesus, and feare fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified. ¹⁸ And many that beleued came, and confessed, and shewed their deedes. ¹⁹ Many also of them which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes together and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer. ²⁰ So mightily grew the word of God, and preuayled.

²¹ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, vvhen hee had passed thorow Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Hierusalem, saying, After I haue bin there, I must also see Rome. ²² So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he himselfe stayed in Asia for a season. ²³ And the same time there arose no small stirre about that way. ²⁴ For a certayne man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer shrines for Diana, brought no small guine vnto the craftsmen: ²⁵ Whom hee called together, with the workemen their laying away, he went and entred into the castle, and tolde Paul. ¹⁷ And Paul called one of the vnder Captaynes vnto hym, and sayd, Bring this yonge man vnto the hye Captayne: for he hath a certayne thyng to shewe him. ¹⁸ And he toke him, and brought him to the hye Captayne, and sayd, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath a certayne matter to shewe thee.

¹⁹ The hye Captayne toke him by the hand, and went a parte with him out of the way, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe vnto me? ²⁰ And he sayd, The Iewes are determinyd to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Council, as though they wolde inquire some what of him more perfectly. ²¹ But folowe not thou their myndes: for ther lye in wayte for him of them, more then fourtie men, which haue bounde thee with a solemne othe, that they wil neither eat nor drinke, tyl they haue kylled him: and now are they ready, and lke that thou shouldest promise. ²² The vpper Captayne then let the yonge man departe, and charged him, saying, Se thou disclose to no man, that thou hast shewed these thynges to me.

²³ And he called vnto him two certeyn vnder Captaynes, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to go to Cesarea, and horemen threescore and ten, and two hundred, with dartes at the thirde houre of the nyght. ²⁴ And let them make ready an horse that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the hye Deputie. ²⁵ And he wrote a letter in this maner. ²⁶ Claudius Lysias vnto the moste myghty Rular Felix, sendeth gretynges. ²⁷ This man was taken of the Iewes, and shulde haue bene kylled of them: but I came with souldiers, and rescued him, perceauing that he was a Romaine. ²⁸ And when I wolde haue knowen the cause, wherfore heard, of their lying in vwaite, he came and entred into the castle and told Paul. ¹⁷ And Paul calling to him one of the Centurions, said, Bring this yong man to the Tribune, for he hath some thing to tel him. ¹⁸ And he taking him, brought him to the Tribune, and said, The prisoner Paul desired me to bring this yong man vnto thee, hauing some thing to say to thee. ¹⁹ And the Tribune taking him by the hand, went aside with him apart, and asked him, What is it that thou hast to tel me? ²⁰ And he said, The Iewes haue agreed to desire thee, that to morrow thou wilt bring forth Paul into the Council, as though they meant to inquire some more certainte touching him. ²¹ But doe not thou credite them, for there lie in vwaite for him more then fourtie men of them, vvch haue vowed neither to eate nor to drinke, til they kil him: and they are now ready, expecting thy promise.

²² The Tribune therefore dismissed the yong man, commanding that he should speake to no man that he had notified these thynges vnto him. ²³ And calling two Centurions, he said to them, Make ready two hundred souldiers, to goe as farr as Caesaría, and scientie horsemen, and launces two hundred, from the third houre of the night: ²⁴ and prepare beasts, that setting Paul on, they might bring him safe to Felix the President. (For he feared lest perhaps the Iewes might take him away, and kil him, and him self afterward should sustaine reproche, as though he vvould haue taken money) ²⁵ vvriting a letter containing this much.

their laying in wait, hee went and entred into the castle, and told Paul. ¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and said, Bring this young man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certayne thing to tell him. ¹⁸ So he took him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, who hath something to say vnto thee. ¹⁹ Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went with him aside priuately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? ²⁰ And he said, The Iewes haue agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring downe Paul to morrow into the Council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

²¹ But do not thou yeeld vnto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more then fourtie men, which haue bound themselves with an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

²² So the chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man, that thou hast shewed these thynges to me. ²³ And he called vnto him two Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to goe to Cesarea, and horemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the thirde houre of the night. ²⁴ And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe vnto Felix the gouernour. ²⁵ And hee wrote a letter after this manner: ²⁶ Claudius Lysias, vnto the most excellent Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting. ²⁷ This man was taken of the Iewes and should haue bene killed of them: Then came I with an armie, and rescued him, hauing vnderstood that he was a Romaine. ²⁸ And when I would haue knowen the cause

And so it came to passe, that all the soules escaped to land.

28. AND when vve had escaped, then vve knewe that the land was called Mitylene. ² But the Barbarons shewed vs no smal courtesie. For, kindling a fire they refreshed vs al, because of the imminent ruine and the colde. ³ And when Paul had gathered together some number of stickes, and laid laide them on the fire, a viper issuing out of the heate, invaded his hand. ⁴ But as the Barbarous sawe the beast hanging on his hand, they said one to another, Undoubtedly this man is a murderier, vwho being escaped out of the sea, Vengeance doth not suffer him to liue. ⁵ And he in dedde shaking of the beast into the fire, suffred no harme. ⁶ But they supposed that he should be turned into a swelling, and that he vwould sodenly fall and die. But expecting long and seeing that there was no harme done on him, being changed they said, that he was a God. ⁷ And in those places were lands of the prince of the ile, named Publius, vwho receiuing vs, for three daies intreated vs courteously. ⁸ And it chaunced that the father of Publius lay ¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the Gospel. For it is the power of God, vnto saluation to euery one that beleueth, to the Jewe first and to the Greke. ¹⁷ For the iustice of God is reuealed therein by faith into faith: as it is vvritten: And the iust liueth by faith.

¹⁸ For the wrath of God from heauen is reuealed, vpon al impietie and iniustice of those men that deteine the veritie of God in iniustice: ¹⁹ because, that of God vvhich is knowen, is manifest in them. For God hath manifested it vnto them.

²⁰ For his inuisible thynges, from the creation of the vworld are seen, being vnderstoode by those thynges that are made: his eternal power also and Diuinitie: so that they are inexcusable. ²¹ Because, vvhereas they knewe God, they haue not glorified him as God, or giuen thanks: but are become vaine in their cogitations, and their foolish hart hath been darkened. ²² For, saying them selues to be wise, they became fooles.

time his righteousness, that he might be counted iuste, and a iustifier of him which beleueh on Iesus. ²⁷ Where is then the reioyng? It is excludet. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the Lawe of fayeth. ²⁸ Therefore, we gather that a man is iustified by fayth, without the deedes of the Lawe. ²⁹ God, is he the God of the Iewes onely, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes euen of the Gentiles also. ³⁰ For it is one God which shal iustifie Circumcision which is of fayth, and vncircumcision through fayeth. ³¹ Do we then make the Lawe vnpofitable through fayeth? God forbid, yea rather we establishe the Lawe.

4. WHAT shal we say then, that Abraham our father gate, as pertainyng to the fleashe. ² For if Abraham were iustified by deades, then hath he wherin to reioyce, but not with God. ³ For what sayeth the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for ryghtuousnesse. ⁴ To hym that worketh, the rewarde is not reckened of fauour, but of duety. ⁵ But to hym that worketh not, but beleueth on hym that iustifieth the vngodly, his fayth is counted for ryghtuousnes. ⁶ Euen as Dauid describeth the blessednes of the man, vnto whome God ascribeth ryghtuousnes without dedes, saying, ⁷ Blessed are they, whose vnryghtuousneses are forgiven, and whose synnes are couered. ⁸ Blessed is that man, to whom the Lord imputeth not synne. ⁹ Came this blessednes then vpon the Circumcised onely, or vpon the vncircumcised also? For we say, how that fayth was reckened vnto Abraham for ryghtuousnes. ¹⁰ How was it then reckened? in the tyme of Circumcision? or in the tyme before he was circumcised? not in the tyme of Circumcision: but when he was yet vncircumcised.

¹¹ And he receaued the sygne of Circumcision, as a seale of the ryghtuousnes of fayth which fayth he had, yet being vncircumcised: that he should be the father to the shewing of his iustice in this time: that he may be iust, and iustifying him that is of the faith of Iesus CHRIST.

²⁷ Where is then thy boasting? it is excluded. by what law? of deedes? No, but by the law of faith. ²⁸ For we account a man to be iustified by faith without the workes of the Law. ²⁹ Is he God of the Iewes only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes of the Gentiles also. ³⁰ For it is one God, that iustificeth circumcision by faith, and prepuce by faith. ³¹ Do we then destroy the Law by faith? God forbid. but we do establish the Law.

4. WHAT shal we say then that Abraham did finde, our father according to the fleah? ² For if Abraham were iustified by workes: he hath glorie, but not with God. ³ For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was reputed him to iustice. ⁴ But to him that worketh, the reward is not imputed according to grace, but according to dette. ⁵ But to him that worketh not, yet beleueth in him that iustifieth the impious, his faith is reputed to iustice according to the purpose of the grace of God. ⁶ As Dauid also termeth the blessednes of a man, to whom God replenisheth iustice without workes, ⁷ Blessed are they, whose iniquities be forgiven, and whose sinnes be covered. ⁸ Blessed is the man to whom our Lord hath not imputed sinne.

⁹ This blessednes then doth it abide in the circumcision, or in the prepuce also? For we say that vnto Abraham faith was reputed to iustice. ¹⁰ How was it reputed? in circumcision, or in prepuce? Not in circumcision, but in prepuce.

¹¹ And he received the signe of circumcision, a seale of the iustice of faith that is in prepuce: that he might be the father righteousness: that hee might be iust, and the iustifier of him which beleueth in Iesus.

²⁷ Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? Of workes? Nay: but by the Law of faith. ²⁸ Therefore wee conclude, that a man is iustified by faith, without the deeds of the Law. ²⁹ Is he the God of the Iewes only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: ³⁰ Seeing it is one God which shall iustifie the circumcision by faith, and vncircumcision through faith. ³¹ Doe we then make void the Law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

4. WHAT shal we say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? ² For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath whereof to glory, but not before God. ³ For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleued God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousness.

⁴ Now to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. ⁵ But to him that worketh not, but beleueth on him that iustifieth the vngodly; his faith is counted for righteousness. ⁶ Euen as Dauid also describeth the blessednes of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes: ⁷ Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are couered. ⁸ Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne. ⁹ Cometh this blessednes then vpon the Circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? for wee say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. ¹⁰ How was it then reckoned? when he was in Circumcision, or in vncircumcision? not in Circumcision, but in vncircumcision. ¹¹ And hee receiued the signe of Circumcision, a seale of the righteousness of the faith, which hee had yet being vncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them of all them that beleue, though they be not myght be the father of Circumcision, not vnto them only which are of the circumcised, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faith that was in our father Abraham, before the tyme of Circumcision. ¹³ For the promes that he should be the heyre of the worlde, was not geuen to Abraham, or to his seed, of al that beleuee by the prepuce, that vnto them also it may be reputed to iustice: ¹² and might be father of circumcision: not to them only that are of the circumcision, but to them also that folow the steppes of the faith that is in the prepuce of our father Abraham. ¹³ For not by the Lawe was the promise to Abraham, or to his seede, that he should be heire of the worlde: but by the iustice of faith.

¹⁴ For if they that are of the Lawe, be heires: faith is made voyde, the promise is abolished. ¹⁵ For the Lawe work-eth wrath. For wher is no lawe, neither is there preuarication. ¹⁶ Therefore of faith: that according to grace the promise may be firme to al the seede, not to that only which is of the Lawe, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs al, (as it is writtē: ¹⁷ For, a father of many nations haue I appointed thee) before God, whom thou didst beleuee, who quickeneth the dead: and calleth those things that are not, as those things that are.

¹⁸ Who contrarie to hope beleueed in hope: that he might be made the father of many nations, according to that which was said to him: so shal thy seede be, as the starres of heauen, and the sand of the sea. ¹⁹ And he was not weakened in faith: neither did he consider his owne body now quite dead, wher as he was almost an hundred yeres old, and the dead matrix of Sara. ²⁰ In the promise also of God he staggered not by distrust: but was strengthened in faith, giuing glorie to God: ²¹ most fully knowing that whatsoeuer he promised, he is able also to doe.
²² Therefore was it also reputed him to of Circumcision, to them who are not of the Circumcision only, but also walke in the steppes of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet vncircumcised.

¹³ For the promise that he should be the heire of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴ For if they which are of the Law be heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise made of none effect. ¹⁵ Because the law work-eth wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. ¹⁶ Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace: to the ende the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all. ¹⁷ (As it is written, I haue made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he beleueed, euen God who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were. ¹⁸ Who against hope, beleueed in hope, that hee might become the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. ¹⁹ And being not weake in faith, he considered not his owne body now dead, when hee was about an hundred yeres old, neither yet the deadnesse of Saras wombe. ²⁰ He staggered not at the promise of God through vnbelleefe: but was strong in faith, giuing glory to God:

²¹ And being fully perswaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to performe. ²² And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. ²³ Now it was not writtē for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him: ²⁴ But for vs deeth vnto me? God forbyd. Naye it was synne: that synne might appere (by it which was good) to worke deeth in me: that synne by the comaundement myght be out of measure synfull. 14 For we knowe, that the lawe is spiritual: but I am carnally solde vnder synne, 15 because I allowe not that whych I do. For what I that do I. 16 If I do now that whych I wolde not, I consente vnto the lawe that it is good: 17 So then now, it is not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me (that is to wolde, do I not: but the evyll whych I wolde not that do I. 20 Yf I do that I wolde not, then is it not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me. 21 I fynde then by the lawe, that when I wolde do good, evyll is present wyth me. 22 For I delite in the lawe of God, after the inward man.

 23 But I se another lawe in my membris, rebellinge agaynst the lawe of my mynde, and subduynge me vnto the lawe of synne, whych is in my membris. 24 O wretched man that I am: who shall delyver me from this body subdued vnto deeth? 25 I thanke God thorow Iesus Christ oure but when the commandment came, sinne reuiued. ¹⁹ But I was dead: and the very same commandment which was ordeyned vnto life, was founde to be vnto me, vnto death.

¹¹ For synne took occasion by the meanes of the commandment, and so disceined me, and by the selfe commandment slew me. ¹² Wherefore the Lawe is holy, and the commandment holy, iust, and good. ¹³ Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? ¹⁷ But now, not I vrorke it any more, but the sinne that dwelleth in me. ¹⁸ For I know, that there dwelleth not in me, that is to say, in my flesh, good. For to vil, is present vwith me, but to accomplish that vvhich is good, I finde not. ¹⁹ For not the good vvhich I vil, that doe I: but the euill vvhich I vil not, that I doe. ²⁰ And if that vvhich I vil not, the same I doe: now not I vrorke it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me. ²¹ I finde therefore, the Lawe, to me hauing a vil to doe good, that euill is present vwith me. ²² For I am delighted vwith the lawe of God according to the inward man: ²³ but I see an other lawe in my members, repugnant to the lawe of my minde, and captiuing me in the lawe of sinne that is in my members. ²⁴ Vnhappy man that I am, vvhich shal deliuer me from the body of this death? ²⁵ The grace of God by Iesus Christ our Lord. together with our Spirit, that we are the sonnes of God. ¹⁷ If we be sonnes: we are also heires, the heires I meane of God, and heires annexed with Christ: yf so be that we suffer together with him, that we may also be glorified together with him. ¹⁸ For I confirme, that the afflictions of this life are not worthy of the glorie which shal be shewed vnto vs. ¹⁹ For the feruent desire of the creature abydeeth, loyng when the sonnes of God shal appere. ²⁰ Because the creature is subiect to vanitie, not of it owne wil: but by reason of him which hath subdued it in hope.

²¹ Because the same creature also, shal be deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God. ²² For we knowe that every creature groweth with vs also, and tranayleth in payne enco vnto this tyme. ²³ Not only the creature, but euen we also which haue the first frutes of the Sprite, do sigh in our selues, and waite for the adoption, euen the deliuerance of our body. ²⁴ For we are saued by hope: but hope that is sene, is no hope. for how can a man hope for that which he seeth? ²⁵ But and yf we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience abyde for it.

²⁶ Likewise the Sprite also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to pray as we ought: but the Sprite asketh for vs with groanings, which can not be expressed with tongue. ²⁷ And he that searcheth the heartes, knoweth what is the meaning of the Sprite: for he maketh intercession for the Saintes, accordyng to the pleasure of God. ²⁸ Also we knowe that all thinges worke for the best vnto them that loue God, which also are called of his purpose. ²⁹ For those which he knewe before, he also ordeyned before, that they should be made lyke fashioned vnto the image of his Sonne: that he myght be the first begotten among many brethren. ³⁰ Moreover, which he appoynted before, them also he called, and whome giueth testimonie to our spirit, that we are the sonnes of God. ¹⁷ And if sonnes, heires also: luieres truly of God, and co-heires of Christ: yet if yve suffer vvith him, that yve may be also glorified vvith him.

¹⁸ For I thinke that the passions of this time are not condigne to the glorie to come that shal be reuealed in vs. ¹⁹ For the expectation of the creature, expecteth the reuelation of the sonnes of God. ²⁰ For the creature is made subiect to vanitie, not vvilling, but for him that made it subiect in hope: ²¹ because the creature also it self shal be deliuered from the seruitude of corruption, into the libertie of the glorie of the children of God. ²² For yve knowv that euery creature groweth, and trauiileth euen til now. ²³ And not only it, but yve also our selues hauing the first frutes of the spirit, yve also groue vvithin our selues, expecting the adoption of the sonnes of God, the redemption of our body. ²⁴ For by hope yve are saued. But hope that is sene, is not hope, for that vvich a man seeth, vvherfore doth he hope it? ²⁵ But if yve hope for that vvich yve see not: yve expect by patience.

²⁶ And in like manner also the Spirit helpeth our infirmities. For, vvhat yve should pray as yve ought, yve knowv not: but the Spirit him self requesteth for vs vvith groanings vvnspeakable. ²⁷ And he that searcheth the hartes, knoweth vvhat the Spirit desireth: because accordyng to God he requesteth for the saintes. ²⁸ And yve knowv that to them that loue God, all thinges cooperate vnto good, to such as according to purpose are called to be saintes. ²⁹ For vvhom he hath for knowen, he hath also predestinated to be made conformance to the image of his sonne: that he myght be the first-borne in many brethren. ³⁰ And vvhom he hath predestinated: them also he hath called, and vvhom he hath called: them also he hath beareth vvithnes vvith our spirit, that we are the children of God. ¹⁷ And if children, then heires, heires of God, and ioynt heires vvith Christ: if so be that we suffer vvith him, that wee may be also glorified together. ¹⁸ For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time, are not worthy to be compared vvith the glory which shal be reuealed in vs. ¹⁹ For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the manifestation of the sonnes of God. ²⁰ For the creature was made subiect to vanitie, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subiected the same in hope: ²¹ Because the creature it selfe also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the children of God. ²² For wee know that the whole creation groaneth, and trauiileth in paine together vvntil now. ²³ And not onely they, but our selues also which haue the first frutes of the spirit, euen we our selues groane vvithin our selues, waiting for the adoption, to vvith, the redemption of our body. ²⁴ For we are saued by hope: but hope that is sene, is not hope: for vvhat a man seeth, vvhat doeth he yet hope for? ²⁵ But if wee hope for that wee see not, then doe wee vvith patience waite for it.

²⁶ Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not vvhat we should pray for as wee ought: but the spirit it selfe maketh intercession for vs vvith groanings, which cannot bee vttered. ²⁷ And he that searcheth the heartes, knoweth vvhat is the mind of the spirit, because he maketh intercession for the Saintes according to the will of God. ²⁸ And wee knowe that all thinges worke together for good, to them that loue God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For vvhom he did foreknow, hee also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Sonne, that he might bee the first borne amongest many brethren. ³⁰ Moreover, vvhom he did predestinate, then he also called: and vvhom he called, then he also iustified:

The worde is nye the, even in thy mouth and in thyne herte.

This worde is the worde of fayth which we preache. ⁹ For yf thou shalt knowledge with thy mouth that Iesus is the lord; and shalt beleve with thyne hert that God raysed him vp from deeth, thou shalt be safe. ¹⁰ For the belefe of the hert iustifieth: and to knowledge with the mouth maketh a man safe. ¹¹ For the scripture sayth: whosoever beleueth on him, shall not be ashamed.

¹² Ther is no difference bitwene the Iewe and the gentyll. For one is Lorde of all, which is ryche vnto all that call on him. ¹³ For whosoever shall call on the name of the lorde, shalbe safe. ¹⁴ But how shall they call on him, on whom they beleued not? how shall they beleve on him of whom they haue not herde? how shall they here with out a preacher? ¹⁵ And how shall they preache except they be sent? As it is writen: how beautifull are the fete of them which bringe glad tydynges of peace; and bringe glad tydynges of good thinges. ¹⁶ But they haue not all obeyed to the gospell. to stablishe their awne ryghtewesnes, haue not bene obedient vnto the ryghtewesnes of God. ⁴ For Christ is the fulfyllinge of the lawe, to iustifye all that beleue.

⁶ But the iustice which is of faith, saith thus, Say not in thy hart, Who shal ascend into heauen? that is to bring Christ downe. ⁷ Or who descendeth into the depth? that is to call Christ agayne from the dead. ⁸ But what saith the Scripture? The word is nigh, in thy mouth, and in thy hart, this is the word of faith which we preach. ⁹ For if thou confesse with thy mouth our Lord Iesus, and in thy hart beleue that God hath raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued. ¹⁰ For with the hart we beleue vnto iustice: but with the mouth confession is made to saluation. ¹¹ For the Scripture saith: Whosoer beleueth in him, shal not be confounded.

¹² For there is no distinction of the Iew and the Greeke: for one is Lord of al, riche toward al that inuocate him. ¹³ For euery one whosoer shal inuocate the name of our Lord, shal be saued. ¹⁴ Howe then shal they inuocate in whom they haue not beleued? backe alwayes. ¹¹ I say then, Have they therefore stombled, that they should fall?
God forbid: but through their fall, saluation cometh vnto the Gentils, to prouoke them to folow them. ¹² Wherefore if the full of them, be the ryches of the worlde:
and the diminishing of them the ryches of the Gentils: how muche more shal their fulnes be? ¹³ For in that I speake to you Gentils, in as muche as I am the Apostle of the Gentile, I magnifie myne office. ¹⁴ That I might trie if by any meanes, I might prouoke them which are them, be the reconciling of the worlde: what shal the reccauing of them be, but lyfe from the dead? ¹⁶ For if the first fruite be holy, the whole lump is holie:

and if the rote be holy, the branches lykewyse shalbe holy.

¹⁷ Thogh some of the branches be broken of, and thou being a wyldie olive tree, broken of, and thou standest stedfast by faith: be not hye mynded, but feare.

²¹ For seeing that God spared not the natural branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee. ²² Behold therefore the kindnes, and rigorour of God: towarde them which fell, rigorousnes: but towarde thee, kindnes, yf thou continue in his kindnes: or els thou shalt be hewen of.
²³ And they also, if they hyde not styl in vnbelefe, shalbe graffed in: for God is of olive trees crooked. ¹¹ I say then, haue they so stombled, that they should fall? God forbid. but by their offence, saluation is to the Gentils, that they may emulate them. ¹² And if the offence of them be the riches of the worlde, and the diminution of them the riches of the Gentils: how much more the fulnesse of them? ¹³ For to you Gentils I say, as long verely as I am the Apostle of the Gentils, I wil honour my ministerie, ¹⁴ if by any meanes I may prouoke my flesh to emulation, and may saue some of them.

¹⁵ For if the losse of them be the reconciliation of the worlde: what shal the reccauing be, but life from the dead?
¹⁶ And if the first fruite be holy, the masse also: and if the roote be holy, the boughes also. ¹⁷ And if some of the boughes be broken, and thou vnbearest thou wast a wilde olive, art graffed in them, and art made partaker of the mote and of the fatnesse of the olive, ¹⁸ glorie not against the boughes. And if thou glorie: not thou bearest the roote, but the roote thee. ¹⁹ Thou saiest then: the boughes were broken, that I might be grafted in. ²⁰ Vvel: because of incredulitie they were broken, but thou by faith doest stand: be not to highly wise, but feare.

²¹ For if God hath not spared the natural boughes: lest perhaps he wil not spare thee neither. ²² See then the goodnes and the seueritie of God: vpon them surely that are fallen, the seueritie: but vpon thee the goodnes of God, if thou abide in his goodnesse, otherwise thou also shalt be cut of. ²³ But they also, if they do not abide in incredulitie, shal be grafted in. for God is able to graffe them in agayne. ²⁴ For if thou wast cut out of the natural vild olive, and contrarie to nature wast graffed into the good olive: how much more they that are according to nature, shal be graffed into their owne olive?

them. ¹⁵ For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world: what shall the reccuering of them be, but life bee holy, the lump is also holy: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷ And if some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde olive-tree wert grafted in amongst them, and with them partakest of the roote and fatnesse of the Olive tree: ¹⁸ Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
¹⁹ Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.
²⁰ Well: because of vnbeliefe they were broken off, and thou standest by faith.
Be not high minded, but feare. ²¹ For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest hee also spare not thee.
²² Beholde therefore the goodness and seueritie of God: on them which fell, se-ueritie: but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. ²³ And they also, if they abide not still in vnbe-liefe, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe. ²⁴ For if thou wert cut out of the Olive tree which is wilde by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good Olive tree: how much more shall these which be the natural branches, bee graffed into their owne Olive tree?

begotten you through the Gospel. ¹⁶ Wherefore, I pray you follow me. ¹⁷ For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, which is my deare sonne, and faithful in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christe, euen as I teache euery where in all Congregations. ¹⁸ So me swel as thogh I wold not come to you. ¹⁹ But I wil come to you shortly, yf God wyl, and wyl knowe, not the speache of them which swel, but the spiritual power. ²⁰ For the kyngdome of God is not in wordes, but in the power of the Spirit. ²¹ What wyl ye? shal I come vnto you with a rod, or ele in loue and in the sprit of mekenes?

5. IT is heard for a trueth that there is fornication among you, and suche fornication as is not once named among the Gentils: that one should interteyne hys fathers wife. ² And ye swel, and haue not rather sorowed, that he which hath done this dede, myght be put from among you. ³ For I vcrely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already as thogh I were present, that he that hath in thys sort done thys dede, ⁴ Wheo ye are gathered together, and my spirite, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, ⁵ Be deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the fleshe, that the spirite may be sau'd in the day of the Lord Iesus.

Gospel I begat you. ¹⁶ I beseeche you therefore be folowers of me. ¹⁷ Therefore haue I sent to you Timothee, vho is my dearest sonne and faithful in our Lord: vho wil put you in minde of my vvaies that are in Christ Iesus, as euery where in euery Church I teach. ¹⁸ As though I would not come to you, so certaine are puffed vp. ¹⁹ But I wil come to you quickly, if our Lord wil: and wil knowe not the vvorde of them that be puffed vp, but the povver. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God is not in vvorde, but in povver. ²¹ Vwhat wil you? in rodde that I come to you: or in charitie, and the spirit of mildnes?

5. THERE is plainly heard fornication among you, and such fornication, as the like is not among the heathen, so that one hath his fathers wife. ² And you are puffed vp: and haue not mourned rather, that he might be taken away from among you, that hath done this dede.

³ I in dede absent in body, but present in spirit, haue already iudged, as present, him that hath so done, ⁴ in the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, you being gathered together and my spirit, vwith the vertue of our Lord Iesus ⁵ to deliuer such an one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be sau'd in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ. ⁶ Your glorying is not good. Knowe you not that a litle leauen corrupteth the vvhole paste?

⁷ Purge the old leauen, that you may be a newe paste, as you are azyms. For our Pasche, Christ, is immolated, ⁸ Therefore let vs feast, not in the old leauen, nor in the leauen of malice and wyckednes, but in the azyms of sinceritie and veritie.

⁹ I wrote to you in an epistle, Not to keepe companie vwith fornicatours. ¹⁰ I meane not the fornicatours of this vvorlde, or the Shall I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of meeknesse?

5. IT is reported commonly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication, as is not so much as named amongst the Gentiles, that one should haue his fathers wife. ² And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might bee taken away from among you. ³ For I verily as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue ⁴ iudged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, ⁴ In the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, ⁵ To deliuer such a one vnto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may bee sau'd in the day of the Lord Iesus. ⁶ Your glorying is not good: know ye not that a litle leauen leaueneth the whole lump? ⁷ Purge out therefore the old leauen, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For euen Christ our Pasche is sacrificed for vs. ⁸ Therefore let vs keepe the Feast, not with old leauen, neither with the leauen of malice and wickednesse: but with the unleavened bread of sinceritie and trueth.

He that is vnmarrid, careth for the thynges that belong to the Lorde, how he maye plesse the Lorde. ³³ But he that hath married a wyfe careth for the thinges that are of the worlde, how he maye please his wyfe.

³⁴ There is difference betwene a virgin and a wyfe. The single woman careth for the thinges that are of the Lorde, that she maye be holi both in bodye and also in sprete. wherin he was called. ²¹ Art thou called to be a servant? care not for it: but if yet thou maist be free, use it rather. ²² For he that is called in the Lord being a servant, is the Lordes freman: lykewyse he that is called being free, is Christes servant. ²³ Ye are bought with a price, be not mens scruples.

²⁴ Brethren let every man, wherin he was called, therein abyde with God. ²⁵ As concerning virgins, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue vnto you myne aduise, as one that hath obtayned mercie of the Lord to be belened. ²⁶ I suppose then this to be good for the present necessitie. I meane that it is good for a man so to be. ²⁷ Art thou bounde vnto a wyfe? seeke not to be loosed. art thou loosed from a wyfe? seeke not a wyfe. ²⁸ But and yf thou takest a wyfe, thou synnest not: lykewyse yf a virgin marry, she synneth not: neuerthelesse, suche shal haue trouble in their flesh: but I fauer you. ²⁹ And this I say brethren, because the tyme is short hereafter, that bothe they which haue wyues, be as thogh they had none: ³⁰ And they that wepe, as thogh they wept not: and they that reioyce, as thogh they reioyced not: and they that bye, as thogh they possessed not: ³¹ And they that vse this worlde, as thogh they used it not. for the fashion of this world goeth away.

let him abide. ²¹ Vvasst thou called being a bondman? care not for it: but and if thou canst be made free, vse it rather. ²² For he that in our Lord is called, being a bondman, is the franchised of our Lord. likewise he that is called, being free, is the bondman of Christ. ²³ You vvere bought vvith price, be not made the bondmen of men. ²⁴ Every brother vvherein he vvas called, in that let him abide before God.

²⁵ And as concerning virgins, a commandement of our Lord I haue not: but counsel I giue, as hauing obtained mercie of our Lord to be faithful. ²⁶ I thinke therefore that this is good for the present necessitie, because it is good for a man so to be. ²⁷ Art thou tied to a vyffe? seeke not to be loosed. Art thou loose from a vyffe? seeke not a vyffe. ²⁸ But if thou take a vyffe, thou hast not sinned. And if a virgin marie, she hath not sinned. neuerthelesse tribulation of the flesh shal such haue. but I spare you. ²⁹ This therefore I say brethren, the time is short, it remaineth, that they also which haue vyuiues, be as thogh they had not: ³⁰ and they that vveepe, as thogh they vvept not: and they that reioyce, as thogh they reioyced not: and they that bye, as thogh they possessed not: ³¹ and they that vse this vvorld, as thogh they used it not. for the figure of this vvorld passeth away. ³² But I vvould haue you to be vvithout carefules. He that is without a vyffe, is careful for the thynges that pertain to our Lord, how he may please God. ³³ But he that is vvith a vyffe, is careful for the thynges that pertain to the vvorld, how he may please his vyffe: and he is decided. ³⁴ And the vvoman vvmarried and the virgin, thinketh on the thynges that pertain to our Lord: that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. you, but to that which is honest, and that may giue you power without impediment to attend vpon our Lord.

² But if any man thinke that he seemeth dishonoured vpon his virgin, for that she is past age, and if it must so be, let him doe that he wyl. He sinneth not if she marie. ³ For he that hath determined in his hart being settled, not hauing necessitie, but hauing power of his owne wyl, and hath iudged this in his hart, to keepe his virgin, doeth well. ⁴ Therefore both he that ioyneth his virgin in matrimonic, doeth well: and he that ioyneth not, doeth better.

⁵ A woman is bound to the law so long time as her husband liueth: but if her husband slepe, she is at libertie: let her marie to whom she wyl: only in our Lord. ⁶ But more blessed shal she be, if she so remaine, according to my counsel. and I thinke that I also haue the Spirit of God.

thought as a child. but as soon as I was a man, I put away childish things. ¹² For now we see in a glass, and in a dark place speaking; but then shall we see face to face. Now I know in part; but then shall I know even as I am known. ¹³ Now abideth faith, hope, and love, even these three; but the chiefest of these is love.

14. FOLLOWE earnestly love, and covet spiritual gifts; and most chiefly for to prophetic. ² For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things. ³ But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edifying, to exhortation, and to comfort. ⁴ He that speaketh strange language, profiteth him self: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

⁵ I would that ye all spake strange languages: but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh divers tongues: except he expound it also, that the Church may be edified. ⁶ And now brethren, if I come unto you speaking divers tongues: what shall I profit you, except I speak to you, other by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? ⁷ Moreover things without life which give a sound, whether it be a pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? ⁸ And also if the trumpet give an uncertaine voyce, who shall prepare him self to fight? ⁹ Even so likewise, when ye speake strange language, except ye speake words that have signification, how shall it be understood what is spoken? for ye shall but speake in the ayre. ¹⁰ There are so many kindes of voyces as it cometh to passe in the worlde, and none of them are so, that they can not be discerned.

as a little one, I thought as a little one. But when I was made a man, I did unvay the things that belonged to a little one. ¹² We see now by a glasse in a darke sort: but then face to face. Now I know in part: but then I shall know as also I am known. ¹³ And now there remaine, faith, hope, and charitie, these three: but the greater of these is charitie.

14. FOLLOWE Charitie, earnestly pursue spiritual things: but rather that you may prophesie. ² For he that speaketh with tongue, speaketh not to men, but to God: for no man heareth. But in spirit he speaketh mysteries. ³ For he that prophesieth, speaketh to men unto edification, and exhortation, and consolation. ⁴ He that speaketh with tongues, edifieth him self: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church. ⁵ And I would have you all to speake with tongues, but rather to prophesie. For greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh with tongues: unless perhaps he interpret, that the Church may take edification. ⁶ But now brethren if I come to you speaking with tongues: what shall I profit you, unless I speake to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophesie, or in doctrine? ⁷ Yet the things without life that give a sound, be it pipe or harpe, unless they give a distinction of sounds, how shall that be known which is piped, or which is harped? ⁸ For if the trumpet give an uncertaine voyce, who shall prepare him self to battell? ⁹ So you also by a tongue unless you utter manifest speech, how shall that be known that is said? for you shall be speaking into the aire.

¹⁰ There are (for example) so many kindes of tongues in this world, and none is without voice. ¹¹ If then I know not the vertue of the voice, I shall be to him to whom I speake, barbarous: and he that speaketh, barbarous to me. ¹² So you also, because you be imitators of spirits:

14. FOLLOW after charitie, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie. ² For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. ³ But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. ⁴ He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church. ⁵ I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh with tongues, except hee interpret, that the Church may receive edifying. ⁶ Now brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speake to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? ⁷ And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harpe, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? ⁸ For if the trumpet give an uncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to the battell? ⁹ So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words easie to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speake into the aire.

¹⁰ There are, it may bee, so many kindes of voyces in the world, and none of them are without signification. ¹¹ Therefore if I knowe not the meaning of the voyce, I shall bee unto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian unto mee. ¹² Even so ye, as ye couet spiritual gistes, seeke ye that ye may excol vnto the edifying of the Church. ¹³ Wherefore, let him that speaketh the tonges, praye, that he may interpret also: ¹⁴ For if I pray in a strange tonge, my spirite prayeth: but my vnder-standing is with out fruite. ¹⁵ What is it then? I wil pray with the spirite, and wil pray with the vnderstanding also I wil syng with the spirite, and wil syng with the vnderstanding also. ¹⁶ For els, when thou blessest wyth the sprite, how shal he that occupieth the rowme of the vnllearned, say Amen, at thy geing of thanks? sayng he vnderstandeth not what thou sayest.

¹⁷ For thou verely geuest thanks wel: but the other is not edified. ¹⁸ I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all. ¹⁹ Yet had I leuer in the Church, to speke fve wordes with my vnderstanding to the teaching of other, rather then ten thousand wordes in strange language.
²⁰ Brethren, be not chylidren in vnder-standing: but, as concerning malicious-nes, be chylidren: but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age. ²¹ In the Lawe it is written, By sundry tonges, and sundry lippes wyl I speake vnto this people: and so shal they not heare me, sayeth the Lord. ²² Wherefore, tonges are for a sygne, not to them that beleue: but to them that beleue not: contrariwyse, prophesying serueth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue. ²³ If therefore, when all the Church is come together, and all speake in strange tonges, there come in they that are vnllearned or they which beleue not, wyl they not say that ye are out of your wyttes?

 Church. ¹³ And therefore he that speaketh wyth the tongue, let him pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray wyth the tongue, my spirit prynceth, but my vnder-standing is without fruite.

¹⁵ What is it then? I wil pray in the spirit, I wil pray also in the vnderstand-ing: I wil sing in the spirit, I wil sing also in the vnderstanding. ¹⁶ But if thou blesse in the spirit: he that supplieth the place of the vulgar hove shal he say, Amen, vpon thy blessing? because he knowveth not vwhat thou sayest.

¹⁷ For thou in dede giuest thanks vvel: but the other is not edified. ¹⁸ I gine my God thanks, that I speake wyth the tongue of you al. ¹⁹ But in the Church I wil speake fve vvordes with my vnderstand-ing that I may instruct others also: rather then ten thousand vvordes in a tongue.
²⁰ Brethren, be not made chylidren in sence, but in malice be chylidren: and in sence be perfect. ²¹ In the Lawe it is vvritten, That in other tongues and other lippes I wil speake to this people: and neither so wil they heare me, saith our Lord.

²² Therefore languages are for a signe not to the faithful, but to infidels: but prophesies, not to infidels, but to the faithful. ²³ If therefore the vvhole Church come together in one, and al speake with tougues, and there enter in vulgar persons or infidels, vvil they not say that you be hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a reuelation, hath an interpretation: Let all things be done unto edifying. ²⁷ If any man speake in an unknowne tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret. ²⁸ But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God. ²⁹ Let the Prophetes speake two or three, and let the other iudge. ³⁰ If any thing be reueiled to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. ³¹ For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may be comforted. ³² And the spirites of the Prophetes are subiect to the Prophetes. ³³ For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the Saints. ³⁴ Let your women keepe silence in the Churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speake; but they are commanded to be vnder obedience: as also saith the Law. ³⁵ And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church. ³⁶ What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you onely? ³⁷ If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write unto you, are the commandementes of the Lord. ³⁸ But if any man bee ignorant, let him be ignorant. ³⁹ Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake with tongues. ⁴⁰ Let all thinges be done decently, and in order.

15. MOREOVER brethren, I declare unto you the Gospel which I preached unto you, which also you haue receiued, and wherein ye stand. ² By which also ye are saved, if ye keepe in memorie what I preached unto you, vnkess ye haue beleued in vaine. ³ For I deliuered unto you first of all, that which I also receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes according to the Scriptures:

2. NOW, I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that for to fauer you I came not as yet vnto Corinthus. Not that we be lordes ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioye, for by faith ye stande. But I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come agayne to you in heauynes. ² For yf I make you sory, who is he that should make me glad, but the same which is made sory by me? ³ And I wrote this same vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heuynes of them, of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all. ⁴ For in great affliction, and anguyshe of heart, I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sory, but that ye myght perceaue the loue which I haue, mooste specially vnto you.

2. AND I haue determined with my self this same thing, not to come to you againe in sorow. ² For if I make you sory: and who is it that can make me glad, but he that is made sory by me? ³ And this same I wrote to you: that I may not, when I come, haue sorow vpon sorow, of the which I ought to reioyce: trusting in you al, that my ioy is the ioy of you al. ⁴ For of much tribulation and anguish of hart I wrote to you by many teares: not that you should be made sory: but that you may knowe what charitie I haue more abundantly toward you. ⁵ And if any man hath made sorowful, not me hath he made sorowful, but in part, that I burden not al you. ⁶ To him that is such a one, this rebuke sufficeth that is giuen of many: ⁷ so that contrariwise you should rather pardon and comfort him, lest perhaps such an one be swallowed vp with ouer great sorow. ⁸ For the which cause I beseeche you that you confirme charitie toward him. ⁹ For therefore also haue I written that I may knowe the experiment of you, whether in al things you be obedient. ¹⁰ And vvhom you haue pardoned any thing, I also. suffer tribulation, but are not in distresse:
we want, but are not destitute: ⁹ we suffer persecution, but are not forsaken: we are cast downe, but we perish not:
¹⁰ alwayes bearing about in our body the mortification of Iesus, that the life also of Iesus may be manifested in our bodies.

¹¹ For we that liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus: that the life also of Iesus may be manifested in our mortall shal not be found naked. 4 For in dede we that are in this tabernacle, syghe and are burdened, wherein whiles we are, we wolde not be vnclodeth, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalite might be swallowed vp of lyfe. 5 He that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath given vnto vs the earnest of the Sprite. 6 Therefore, we are alway bolde and knowe that as longe as we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. 7 For we walke in faith, and not by sight. 8 Neuertheless, we are of good conforte, and had leuer to remoue out of the body, and to go to dwell with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we couet, that bothe dwelling at home, and remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him. 10 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receiue the things which are of his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we bring men to the faith, and we haue approued our selues vnto God. I trust also that we are approued in your consciences. 12 For we praise not our selues agayne vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioice of vs, that ye may haue what to answer against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart. 13 For whether we be folles, we are folles to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are in our right mynde for your conuoludie.

14 For the loue of Christe constrayneth vs: because we thus iudge, that yf one be dead for all, then were all dead. 15 And he died for all, that they which lyue, should not hence forth lyue vnto them selues, but vnto hym which dyed for them, and rose agayne. 16 Wherefore, hence forth know we no man after the fleshe, and if so be that we haue known Christ after the fleshe, now hence forth know we him so no more.

clothed, not naked. 4 For vve also that are in this tabernacle, grone being burdened: because vve would not be spoiled, but overclothed, that that which is mortal, might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And he that maketh vs to this same, is God, vvhich hath giuen vs the pledge of the Spirit. 6 Being bold therefore alwayes, and knowing that vvhile vve are in the body, vve are pilgrimes from God, (for vve walke by faith and not by sight) 8 but vve are bold, and haue a good will to be pilgrimes rather from the body, and to be present vvvith our Lord. 9 And therefore vve cōdenouer, vvhether absent or present, to please him. 10 For vve must all be manifested before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery one may receiue the proper thinge of the body, according as he hath done, either good or euil.

11 Knowing therefore the feare of our Lord vve vsē persuasion to men: but to God vve are manifest. And I hope also that in your consciences vve are manifest.

12 Vve commend not our selues againe to you, but giue you occasion to glorie for vs: that you may haue against them that glorie in face, and not in hart. 13 for vvhether vve excede in minde, to God: or vvhether vve be sober, to you. 14 For the charite of Christ vveigh vs: iudging this, that if one died for all, then all vvere dead. 15 and Christ died for all: that they also vvhich lyue, may not now liue to them selues, but to him that died for them and rose againe.

16 Therefore vve from hence forth know no man according to the flesh. And if vve haue knowen Christ according to the flesh: but now vve know him no more.

6 Therefore we are alwayes confident, knowing that whilst wee are at home in the body, wee are absent from the Lord. 7 (For wee walke by faith, not by sight.) 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 9 Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. 10 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery one may receiue the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we perswade men; but we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences. 12 For wee commend not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you occasion to glory on our behalfe, that you may haue somewhat to answer them, which glorie in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether wee be besides our selues, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. 14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs, because we thus iudge: that if one died for all, then were all dead: 15 And that he died for all, that they which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselves, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe. 16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man, after the flesh: yea, though we haue known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know wee him no more. 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are past away, behold, all things are become new. 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled vs to himselfe by Iesus Christ, and rejoyced muche more. * For, thogh I maile you sory with a letter, I repent not, thogh I dyd repent: for I perceave that the same epistle maile you sory, thogh it were but for a season.

* I nowe reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye so sorrowed that ye amended: for ye sorrowed Godly: so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs. ¹⁰ For Godly sorrow causeth amendment vnto saluation, not to be repented of: when the worldly sorrow causeth death. ¹¹ For beholde this thinge, that ye haue bene Godly sory, what great care it hath wrought in you? yea, how hath it caused you to cleare your selues: yea what indignation hath it caused: yea what feare: yea how great desire: yea what a feruente mynde: yea what punishment? finally in all thinges ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are cleare in this matter. ¹² Wherefore, thogh I wrote vnto you, I dyd not it for his cause that dyd hurt, nether for his cause that was hurt: but that our good mynde towards you in the syght of God, myght appeare vnto you.

¹³ Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but moste of all we reioyced, for the ioye that Titus had: because his sprite was refreshed by you all. ¹⁴ For if I boasted my selfe any thing, to him of you, I was not ashamed: but as all thynges which I preached vnto you are true, euen so is our boasting, wherof I boasted my selfe to Titus, founde true. ¹⁵ And his inward affection is more abundant towards you, when he remembreth the obedience of euery one of you: and how with feare and trembling ye receaued him. ¹⁶ I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you, in all thynges.

8. I DO you also to wit brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia. ² How that in great trial by affliction, their ioye abunded, reioyced the more. * For although I made you sorie in an epistle, it repenteth me not: albeit it repented me, seeing that the same epistle (although but for a time) did make you sorie. * Now I am glad: not because you were made sorie, but because you were made sorie to penance. For you were made sories according to God, that in nothing you should suffer detriment by vs.

¹⁰ For the sorrow that is according to God, worketh penance vnto saluation that is stable: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. ¹¹ For behold this very thing, that you were made sorie according to God, how great carefulnes it worketh in you: yea defense, yea indignation, yea feare, yea desire, yea emulation, yea revenge. in al thinges you haue shewed your selues to be vndeified in the matter.

¹² Therefore although I wrote to you, not for him that did the iniurie, nor for him that suffered: but to manifest our carefulnes that we haue for you before God, ¹³ therefore we are comforted. But in our consolation, we did the more abundantly reioyce vpon the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed of al you. ¹⁴ And if to him I gloried any thing of you, I am not confounded: but as we spake al thinges to you in truth, so also our glorying that we to Titus, is made a truth, ¹⁵ and his bookeys are more abundantly toward you: remembreth the obedience of you al, how with feare and trembling you receiued him. ¹⁶ I reioyce that in al thinges I haue confidence in you.

so that I reioyced the more. * For though I made you sory with a letter, I doe not repent, though I did repent: For I perceiue that the same Epistle hath made you sorie, though it were but for a season. * Now I reioyce, not that ye were made sorie, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sory * after a godly manner, that ye might receiue damage by vs in nothing. ¹⁰ For godly sorrow worketh repentance to saluation not to be repented of, but the sorrow of the world worketh death. ¹¹ For behold this selfe same thing that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulnesse it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selues, yea, what indignation, yea, what feare, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeale, yea, what revenge: In all thinges ye haue approued your selues to be cleare in this matter.

¹² Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you. ¹³ Therefore we were comforted in your comfort, yea and exceedingly the more ioyed we for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you al. ¹⁴ For if I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed but as we speake all thinges to you in truth, euen so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a truth. ¹⁵ And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembreth the obedience of you al, how with feare and trembling you receiued him. ¹⁶ I reioyce therefore that I haue confidence in you in all thinges.

ioic of hem was, and the higeste pouert of hem was plenteuous in to the richesses of the sympleas of hem; ³ for I bere witnessyng to hem, aftir myzt & aboue myzt, thoi weren wilful with myche monestynge. ⁴ biscehyng us the grace and the comynyng and of mynystryng: that is made to holi men; ⁵ and not as we hopiden: but thei gauen hem silf first to the lord, aftirwarde to us: bi the wille of god; ⁶ so that we preiden tite, that as he bigan: so also he perfourme in you this grace,

⁷ but as ye abounden in alle thingis in feith and word & kunyng, and al bisynes, more ouer and in youre charite in to us: that also in this grace ye abounden. ⁸ I scie not as comaundinge but bi the bisyness of other men appreyunge also the good witte of youre charite, ⁹ and ye witen the graces of oure lord ihesus crist; for he was made nedi for you whanne he was riche: that ye schulden be made riche bi his nedynesse,

¹⁰ and I geue counceil in this thing, for this is profitable to you, that not onli han bigunne to do, but also ye bigunne to haue wille fro the former joer; ¹¹ but now performe ye in dede, that us the discrecion of wille is redi, so be it also of performyng of that that ye han; ¹² for if the wille be redi: it is acceptid afir that that it hath, not aftir that that it hath not:

¹³ & not that it be remysyoun to other men and to you tribulacioun; ¹⁴ but of euennesse in the present tyme: youre aboundaunce fulfilli the myesse of hem; that also the abundaunce of hem: be a fulfillyng of youre myesse that euennesse be made, ¹⁵ as it is writun, he that gaderid mycho: was not encrecid; and he that gaderid litil, hadde not leste. ¹⁶ and I do thankyngis to god, that gaf the same biyeness for you in the herte of tite, they are tried with moche tribulacion. And therto though they were exceedinge poore, yet haue they geuen exceedinge richly, and that in singleness. ³ For to their powers (I beare recorde) ye and beyonde their power; they were willinge of their owne accorde; ⁴ and prayed vs with great instance that we wolde receave their benefite, and suffre them to be partakers with other in ministryng to the sayntes. ⁵ And this they did not as we looked for: but gave their awne selves first to the lord; and after vnto vs by the will of God: ⁶ so that we coude not but desyre Titus to acomplysshe the same beniuolence amonge you also, even as he had begonne.

⁷ Now therefore, as ye are ryche in all parties, in fayth, in worde, in knowlege, in all feruentnes, and in love, which ye haue to vs: euen so, as that ye be plenteous in this beniuolence. ⁸ Thus saye I not as commaundyng; but because other are so feruent, therefore prove I youre love, whether it be perfait or no. ⁹ Ye knowe the liberalite of oure lord Iesus Christ, which though he was riche, yet for youre sakes he became poore: that ye thorow his povertie, myght be made ryche.

¹⁰ And I geue counsell hereto. For this is expedient for you, which beganne, not to do only: but also to wyl, a yere ago. ¹¹ Now therefore performe the dede: that as ther was in you a redines to wyl, even so ye maye performe the dede, of that which ye haue. ¹² For if ther be fyrst a wyllyng mynde, it is accepted accordyng to that a man hath, and not accordyng to that he hath not.

¹³ It is not my mynde that other be set at ease, and ye brought into combrance: ¹⁴ but that ther be egalnes now at this tyme; that youre aboundaunce sucke their lacke: that their aboundaunce maye supplie youre lacke: that ther maye be equalite. ¹⁵ agreynge to that which is written. and the pouertie which had consumed them, euen to the very botome, abounded vnto their moste riche liberalitie. ³ For to their powers (I beare recorde) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing of their owne accorde. ⁴ And prayed vs with great instance, that we wolde recouere their benefite, and suffre them to be partakers with other in ministring to the Sainctes.

⁵ And this they dyd, not as we looked fore : but gaue their owne schues fyrst to the Lord, and after vnto vs, by the wyl of God. ⁶ So that we could not but desire Titus to accomplishe the same beneuolence among you also, euen as he had begone. ⁷ Therefore, as ye are riche in all things, in faith, and in worde, and in knowledge, and in all diligence, and in loue towards vs, euen so as that ye be plentiful in this beneuolence also. ⁸ This say I, not as commanding, but because other are so feruent, therefore proue I your loue, whether it be syncre: ⁹ For ye know the liberalitie of our Lord Iesus Christ, which though he were ryche, yet for your sakes became poore : that ye through his pouertie, myght be made ryche. ¹⁰ And I shewe my mynde here in : for this is expedient for you, which began not to do only, but also to wil, a yere ago. ¹¹ Now therfore performe the thinge, that ye began to do : that as ther was in you a redynce to wyl, euen so ye may performe the dede, of that which ye haue.

¹² For yf ther be fyrst a willing mynde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. ¹³ Neither is it that other men shoulde be freed and you burdened. ¹⁴ But vpon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke : that also their abundance may supply your lacke : that ther may be equalitie. ¹⁵ Agreeing to that which is written, He that gathered muche, had neuer the more abundance, and he that gathered litle, had neuertheless. ¹⁶ And thankes be vnto God, which put in the heart of Titus the same good mynde abundance of loy, and their very deepe pouertie abounded vnto the riches of their simplicitie, ³ for according to their povver (I giue them testimonie) and aboute their povver they vvere willing. ⁴ vwith much exhortation requesting vs the grace and communication of the ministerie that is done toward the sainctes. ⁵ And not as we hoped, but their ovne schues they gaue, first to our Lord, then to vs by the vvil of God : ⁶ in so much that we desired Titus, that as he began, so also he vvould perfit in you this grace also. ⁷ But as in al things you abound in faith, and vvord, and knowlledge, and al carefulnes, moreouer also in your charitie toward vs, that in this grace also you may abound. ⁸ I speake not as commanding : but by the carefulnes of others, approuing also the good disposition of your charitie. ⁹ For you knowe the grace of our Lord Iesvs Christ, that for you he vvas made poore, whereas he vvvas ryche : that by his pouertie you might be riche. ¹⁰ And in this point I giue counsell : for this is profitable for you, vvwhich haue begonne not only to doe, but also to be willing, from the yere past :

¹¹ but now performe ye it also in dede : that as your mynde is prompt to be vvilling, so it may be also to performe, of that vvwhich you haue. ¹² For if the vvil be prompt : it is accepted according to that vvwhich it hath, not according to that vvwhich it hath not. ¹³ For not that other shoulde haue ease, and you trillulation : ¹⁴ but by an equalitie. Let in this present tyme your abundance supplie their vvant : that their abundance also may supplie your vvant, that there be an equalitie. ¹⁵ as it is vvritten : He that had much, abounded not : and he that had litle, wanted not.

³ For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves : ⁴ Praying vs with much intreatie, that we would recieve the gift, and take vpon vs the fellowship of the ministring to the Saincts. ⁵ And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gaue their owne selues to the Lord, and vnto vs by the will of God. ⁶ Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. ⁷ Therefore (as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue to vs) see that you abound in this grace also.

⁸ I speake not by commandement, but by occasion of the forwardnesse of others, and to proue the sincerity of your loue.

¹⁰ And herein I giue my aduice, for this is expedient for you, who haue begun before, not onely to doe, but also to be towards you. ¹⁷ Both that he accepted the exhortation, and also that he was so well willing, that of his owne accorde, he went vnto you.

¹¹ forward a yere agoe. ¹² Now therefore performe the doing of it, that as there was a readinesse to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you haue. ¹³ For if there bee first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. ¹⁴ For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burthened : ¹⁵ But by an equalitie : that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equalitie. ¹⁶ As it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, and hee that had gathered litle, had no lacke. ¹⁷ But thankes bee to God which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

¹⁸ (And we haue sent also with him that brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches :) ¹⁹ And not so only, but is also chosen by election of the Churches to be a fellowe in our Iorney concerning this beneuolence, that is ministred by vs vnto the prayse of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt mynde. ²⁰ Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this plenteous distribution, that is ministred by vs. ²¹ For we make prouision for honest thinges, not in the sight of God only, but also in the syght of men. ²² And we haue sent with them our brother, whom we haue ofte tymes proued diligent in many thinges, but now mache more diligent, for the great confidence which I haue in you.

²³ Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my fellowe and helper, as concerning you: or els of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the glorie of Christ. ²⁴ Wherefore shewe towards them the proffe of your loue, and of the reioysing that we haue of you, that the Churches may see it.

9. FOR as touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is but superfluous for me to write vnto you: ² For I knowe your redynes of mynd, wherof I boast my selfe vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yere ago, and your seruantes hath prouoked many. ³ Neuertheless, yet haue I sent these brethren, lest our reioysing ouer you should be in rayne in this behalfe: that ye (as I haue sayd) be ready. ⁴ Lest peraduenture yf they of Macedonia come with me, and fynde you vnprepared, we (I neede not to say you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

of Titus, ¹⁷ for that he admitted in deede exhortation: but being more careful, of his owne vvil he went vnto you. ¹⁸ Vve haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel through all the churches: ¹⁹ and not only that, but also he was ordeined of the churches fellow of our peregrination, for this grace which is ministred of vs to the glorie of our Lord, and our determined vvil: ²⁰ auoiding this, lest any man might reprehend vs in this fulnes that is ministred of vs.

²¹ For vve provide good thinges not only before God, but also before men. ²² And vve haue sent with them our brother also, whom vve haue proued in many thinges often to be careful: but now much more careful, for the great confidence in you, ²³ either for Titus which is my fellow and coadiutor toward you, or our brethren Apostles of the churches, the glorie of Christ. ²⁴ The declaration therefore which is of your charitie and our glorying for you, declare ye toward them in the face of the churches.

9. FOR concerning the ministerie that is done toward the saintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you. ² For I know your prompt minde: for the which I glorie of you to the Macedonians: That Achaia also is ready from the yere past, and your emulation hath prouoked very many. ³ But I haue sent the brethren, that the thing which vve glorie of you, be not made void in this behalfe, that (as I haue said) you may be ready: ⁴ lest when the Macedonians shal come with me, and fynde you vnready, vve (that vve say not, ye) may be ashamed in this substance. ⁵ Therefore I thought it necessarie to desire the brethren that they would come to you, and prepare this blessing before promised, ¹⁷ For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his owne accord he went vnto you. ¹⁸ And wee haue sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel, throughout all the Churches. ¹⁹ And not that only, but who was also chosen of the Churches to traualle with vs with this grace which is administred by vs to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your readie minde. ²⁰ Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance which is administred by vs. ²¹ Prouiding for honest thinges, not only in the sight of the Lord, but in the sight of men. ²² And we haue sent with them our brother, whom wee haue often times proued diligent in many thinges, but now much more diligent, vpon the great confidence which I haue in you. ²³ Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren bee enquired of, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ. ²⁴ Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the Churches, the prooffe of your loue, and of our boasting on your behalfe.

9. FOR as touching the ministring to the Saintes, it is superfluous for mee to write to you. ² For I know the forwardnesse of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia, was ready a yere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked very many. ³ Yet haue I sent the brethren, least our boasting of you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that as I saide, yee may be readie. ⁴ Lest happily if they of Macedonia come with mee, and find you vnprepared, wee (that wee say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. ⁵ Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before vnto you, and make vp before hand your 7 bountie.

VVOULD to God, ye could suffre a lytle my folishnes, and in deed, ye for beare me. ² For I am gelous ouer you, with godly gelousie: for I haue prepared you, for one husband: to present you a pure virgin to Christe: ³ But I feare lest as the serpent begyled Eue through his subteltie: euen so your myndes should be corrupte from the simplicitie that is in Christ. ⁴ For if he that commeth, preacheth another Iesus then him whom we preached: or if ye receaue another sprite then that which ye haue receaue: ether another Gospel, then that ye haue receaued, ye might wel haue suffered him. ⁵ Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chief Apostles. ⁶ Thogh I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you, we haue bene knownen to the vtmost, what we are in all thinges.

⁷ Dyd I therein synoe, because I submitted my selfe, that ye myght be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God fre? ⁸ I robbed other Churches, and take wages of them, to do you seruice withall. ⁹ And when I was present with you, and had neede, I was not slothful to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all thinges I kept my selfe that I shoulde not be greuous to you, and so wil I kepe my selfe.

¹⁰ The truth of Christ is in me, this reioyng shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Wherefore? because I loue you not? ¹⁷ But he that glorieth, let him glorie in our Lord. ¹⁸ For not he that commendeth him selfe, the same is approued: but vvhom God commendeth.

11. VVOULD God you could beare some litle of my folly: but do ye also support me: ² for I emulate you vwith the emulation of God. For I haue dispossured you to one man, to present you a chaste virgin vnto Christ. ³ But I feare lest, as the serpent seduced Eue by his subteltie, so your senses may be corrupted, and fall from the simplicitie that is in Christ. ⁴ For if he that commeth, preaches an other Christ vvhom we haue not preached, or you receiue an other spirit vvhoin you haue not receiued: or an other Gospel vvhich you haue not receiued: you might vvel suffer it.

⁵ For I suppose that I haue done nothing lesse then the great Apostles. ⁶ For although rude in speache, yet not in knowledge, but in al thinges we are made manifest to you. ⁷ Or did I commit a sinne, humbling my selfe, that you might be exalted? because I euangelized vnto you the Gospel of God gratis? ⁸ Other churches I spoiled, taking a stipend, for your iniusterie. ⁹ And vwhen I was vwith you, and had neede, I was burlesome to none: for that vvhich I wanted, the brethren supplied that came from Macedonia: and in al thinges I haue kept my selfe vwithout burden to you, and vvil keepe.

THE EPISTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Χριστοῦ, εἰς ἕτερον εὐαγγέλιον· ὃ οὐκ ἔστιν ἄλλο, εἰ μή τινές εἰσω οἱ ταράσσοντες ὑμᾶς, καὶ θέλοντες μεταστρέψαι τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τοῦ Χριστοῦ. ἅλλα καὶ εἰ ἡμεῖς ἡ ἀγγελος ἐξ οὐρανοῦ εὐαγγελίζηται ὑμῖν παρ' ὃ εὐηγγελισάμεθα ὑμῖν, ἀνάθεμα ἔστω. ὡς προειρηκάμεν, καὶ ἄρτι πάλιν λέγω, εἰ τις ὑμᾶς εὐαγγελίζεται παρ' ὃ παρελάβετε, ἀνάθεμα ἔστω. ἄρτι γὰρ ἀνθρώπους πείθω ἢ τὸν Θεόν; ἢ ζητῶ ἀνθρώποις ἀρέσκειν; εἰ γὰρ ἐτι ἀνθρώποις ἤρεσκον, Χριστοῦ δούλος οὐκ ἂν ἦμην. Ἰ γνωρίζω δὲ ὑμῖν, ἀδελφοί, τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τὸ εὐαγγελισθὲν ὑπ' ἐμοῦ,

1. PAUL an Apostle (not of men, neither by man, but by Iesus Christe, and by God the Father which rayed him from death) 2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia :

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ.

4 Which gaue him selfe for our synnes, to deliuer vs from this present euyl world according to the wyl of God our Father.

5 To whom be prayse for euer and euer, Amen. 6 I marueyle that ye are so sone turned vnto another Gospel, forsaking him that had called you vnto the grace of Christ, 7 Scing there is no nother : but that there be some which trouble you, and intende to peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But thogh that we, or an Angel from heauen, preache vnto you otherwaies, then that which we haue preached vnto you, holde him as accursed. 9 As we sayd before, so say I now agayne, Yf any man preache vnto you otherwaies, then that ye haue receaued, holde him accursed. 10 For now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods? other go I about to please men? for if I studied yet to please men, I were not the seruant of Christe. 11 I certifie you brethren, that the Gospel whych was preachul

1. PAUL an Apostle not of men, neither by man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father that raised him from the dead, 2 and al the brethren that are vvith me : to the churches of Galatia. 3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Iesus Christ, 4 vvho gaue him self for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs from this present vvicked vvorld, according to the vvil of our God and father : 5 to vvhom is glorie for euer and euer. Amen.

6 I marvel that thus so soone you are transferred from him that called you into the grace of Christ, vnto an other Gospel : 7 vvhich is not an other, vvles there be some that trouble you, and vvil inuert the Gospel of Christ. 8 But although we, or an Angel from heauen, euangelize to you beside that vvlich vve haue euangelized to you, be he anathema. 9 As vve haue said before, so now I say againe, If any euangelize to you, beside that vvlich you haue receiued, be he anathema. 10 For do I now vve persuasion to men, or to God? Or do I seeke to please men? If I yet did please men, I should not be the seruant of Christ.

11 For I doe you to vnderstund, brethren, the Gospel that vvas euangelized of me, the dedes of the lawe, are vnder malediccion. For it is writen: cursed is every man that continueth not in all thinges which are writen in the booke of the lawe, to fulfill them. ¹¹ That no man is iustified by the lawe in the sight of God, is evident.

 For the iuste shall live by fayth. ¹² The lawe is not of fayth: but the man that fulfilleth the thinges containyd in the lawe (shall live in them.) ¹³ But Christ hath delivered vs from the curse of the lawe, and was made a cursed for vs. For it is writen: cursed is every one that hang-ham might come on the gentyls thorow

¹⁵ Brethren I will speake after the manner of men. Though it be but a mans testament, yet no man despiseth it, or addeth eny thinge ther to when it is once allowed. ¹⁶ To Abraham and his seed were the promes made. He seyth not in the seedes as in many: but in thy seed, as in one, which is Christ. ¹⁷ This I saye, that the lawe which beganne afterwarde, beyonde .iiii. C. xxx. yeres, doth not disaunll the testament, that was confermed afore of God vnto Christ ward, to make the promes of none effect. ¹⁸ For yf the inheritaunce come of the lawe, it cometh not of promes. But God gave it vnto Abraham by promes.

¹⁹ Wherefore then serveth the lawe? The dedes of the lawe, are subiecte to the curse. For it is writen cursed be every one, that contynueh not in all thinges which are writen in the booke of the lawe,

 to fulfill them. ¹¹ That no man is iustified by the lawe in the syght of God it is evident.

For the iuste shall lyue by fayth. ¹² The lawe is not of fayth but the man that fulfilleth the thinges containyd in the deluyered vs from the curse of the lawe, in as much as he was made acursed for myght receave the promes of the sperte thorow fayth.

¹⁵ Brethren, I speake after the maner of men. Though it be but a mans testament, yet no man despyseth it, or addeth eny thinge therto, yf it be allowed. ¹⁶ To Abraham and hys seed were the promyses made, He sayth not in the seedes, as many: but in thy seed, as of one, which is Christ. ¹⁷ Thus I saye, that the lawe which beganne afterwarde, beyonde foure
 .C. and thyrtyte yeres, doth not disannull the testament, that was confermed afore of God vnto Christ ward, to make the promes of none effect. ¹⁸ For yf the inheritaunce come of the lawe, it cometh not now of promes. But God gaue it vnto Abraham by promes.

¹⁹ Wherefore then serueth the lawe? The lawe was added because of transgression (tyll the seed came, to whom the promes was made) and it was ordeyned by Angels in the hande of a mediator. ²⁰ A mediator is not a mediator of onc. But God is one.
²¹ Is the lawe then agaynst the promes of God? God forbyd: For yf ther had bene many as are vnder the dede of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written: Cursed is every man that continueth not in all thinges, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to fulfil them. ¹¹ And that no man is iustified by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: For the iuste shal lyue by fayth. ¹² And the Lawe is not of fayth: but, The man that shal fulfil those thinges, shal liue in them. ¹³ Now Christe hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made accursed for vs: for it is written Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree. ¹⁴ That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentils through Christe Iesus, and that we might receiue the promes of the Sprite through fayth.

¹³ Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, being made a curse for vs (because it is writen, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree) ¹⁴ that on the Gentiles the blessing of Abraham might be made in Christ Iesus: that we may receiue the promise of the Spirit by fayth.

¹⁵ Brethren (I speake according to man) yet a mans testament being confirmed no man despiseth, or farther disposeth. ¹⁶ To Abraham were the promises said, and to his seede. He saith not, And to seedes, as in many: but as in one, And to thy seede, vvhich is Christ. ¹⁷ And this I say, the testament being confirmed of God, the Lawe vvhich was made after foure hundred and thyrty yeres, maketh not void to frustrate the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, now not of promise. and yeere. ¹¹ I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vayne. ¹² Be ye as I: for I am as you: brethren I beseeche you: ye haue not hurt me at all. ¹³ Ye knowe, how through infirmitie of the fleshe, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the fyrst. ¹⁴ And my temptation which was in my fleshe, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but receaued me as an Angel of God: yea as Christ Iesus. ¹⁵ How great was the boasting of your felicitie then? for I beare you recorde, that yf it had bene possible, ye wolde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue geuen them to me. ¹⁶ Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tel you the truth?

¹⁷ They are gelous ouer you amysse, yea, they intende to exclude vs, that ye should altogether lone them. ¹⁸ But it is a good thing, to loue earnestly, so it be alwaies in a good thinge, and not only when I am present with you. ¹⁹ My lyttel chyl-dren of whom I trauaile in birth agayne, vntil Christe be imprinted in you. ²⁰ And I wolde I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I stande in cloute of you. ²¹ Tel me, ye that desire to be vnder the Lawe, do ye not heare the Lawe? ²² For it is wrytten, that Abraham had two sonnes: the one by a bonde mayde, the other by a fre woman.

²³ Yea and he which was of the bonde woman, was borne after the fleshe: but he which was of the fre woman, was borne by promyse. ²⁴ By the which thinges another thing is ment: for these moethers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mounte Sina, which gendereth vnto bondage. ²⁵ For Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and Ierusalem which now is, answereth to it in like sort, for it is in bondage with her children. ²⁶ But Ierusalem, which is aboue, is fre: which is the mother of vs all. ²⁷ For it is wrytten, Reioyce thou barren that bearest no chyl-dren, breake forth and crie, thou that trauestest not: for the desolate hath many times, and yeeres. ¹¹ I feare you, lest per-haps I haue laboured in vaine among you. ¹² Be ye as I, because I also am as you: brethren, I beseeche you, you haue hurt me nothing. ¹³ And you know that by infirmitie of the flesh I euangelized to you heretofore: ¹⁴ and your temptation in my flesh you despised not, neither reiected, but as an Angel of God you receiued me, as Christ Iesus.

¹⁵ Where is then your blessednes? for I giue you testinomie that if it could be done, you wvould haue plucked out your eyes and haue giuen them to me. ¹⁶ Am I then become your enemie, telling you the truth? ¹⁷ They emulate you not vvel: but they wvould exclude you, that you might emulate them. ¹⁸ But do you emulate the good in good alwaies: and not only vwhen I am present vwith you.

¹⁹ My lile children, vvhom I traual vvithal againe, vntil Christ be formed in you. ²⁰ And I wvould be vvith you now and change my voice: because I am confounded in you. ²¹ Tel me you that vvil be vnder the Lawv, haue you not read the Lawv? ²² For it is vvritten that Abraham had tvo sonnes: one of the bond-vvoman, and one of the free-vvoman. ²³ But he that of the bond-vvoman, vvas borne according to the flesh: and he that of the free-vvoman, by the promise.

and yeeres. ¹¹ I am afride of you, lest I haue bestowed vpon you labour in vaine. ¹² Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am: for I am as ye are, ye haue not iniured me at all. ¹³ Ye know how through infirmitie of the flesh, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first. ¹⁴ And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor reiected, but receiued mee as an Angel of God, even as Christ Iesus. ¹⁵ Where is then the blessednesse you spake of? for I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, yee wvould haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

¹⁶ Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the truth? ¹⁷ They zelously affect you, but not well: yea, they would exclude ¹⁸ you, that you might affect them. ¹⁸ But it is good to be zealously affected alwaies in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you. ¹⁹ My lile children, of whom I traualle in birth agayne, vntil Christ be formed in you: ²⁰ I desire to bee present with you now, and to change my voyce, for I stand in doubt of you. ²¹ Tell me, ye that desire to be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law? ²² For it is wrytten, that Abraham had two sonnes, the one by a bondmayd, the other by a free woman. ²³ But hee who was of the bond-woman, was borne after the flesh: but he of the frewoman, was by promise. ²⁴ Which thinges are an Allegoric; for these are the two ²⁵ Couenants: the one from the mount Sina, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. ²⁵ For this Agar is mount Sina in Arabia, and answereth to Ierusalem, which now is, and is in bondage with her children. ²⁶ But Ierusalem which is aboue is free, which is the mother of vs all.
